

MAY 9 1965

EXILED CUBANS PUT IN FOR DOMINICAN DUTY

MIAMI (AP)—The head of the Cuban Bay of Pigs Invasion Veterans Assn. said Saturday he has volunteered his group to help fight in the Dominican Republic.

Juan J. Peruyero made the offer in a letter to President Johnson.

The letter said the 1961 Bay of Pigs Invasion group's survivors have heard "that anti-Castro Cubans in Santo Domingo are being persecuted in the streets and some have been murdered by the pro-Castro Communist mobs."

Peruyero said the association would like to help "not only to protect our fellow citizens in exile but in whatever duties are required ..."